THE ROBINSON LETTER

The session of Legislature still sits on. The Opposition are fast getting the Government into a bind. The Government are not strong enough to stand up, and they have taken the unadvised course of forcing the Bill to sit during Christmas time. They will not be able to get it through the campaign of legislative review.

It is about now with no consciousness of break that we shall surely have had such measures as the Hardy-Bowt combats against. It is a pity that the Opposition is so ill prepared to face the situation. I hope to be here to live to have them driven from an overwhelming defeat at the polls as the result of their present course of action. I hope together two months will bring the Government to reason.

Mr. Willis Shirkley, who has his Christmas dinner at his home in Georgetown, has invited Mr. Walter Davis to come down to him. Mr. Davis is a candidate for the Toronto school board. He is a man of great ability and has had many appointments in several places during Christmas recess, he has taken steps to prevent his election. He is a man of great ability and the power which goes with it. The Parton Bill has been introduced and carried by the opposition. It is a bill which is wasting the resources of the Province of Ontario. It is of all the worst kind, and the province will be the loser for it.

It is an uphill battle, and Mr. Whistler is a man of great ability and has done a very able job in their way. The Government has been unable to meet the opposition committee, where they claim that the fullness of opportunity is given for investigation. The opposition has been unable to get the facts which it wants to know. For example, for the first month of 1897, the expenditure of the Province of Ontario was $1,000,000.00. In a session of the Legislature the Public Accounts Committee did not hold a single hearing. They gave four hours to investigate the expenditure of over three million dollars. At the end of the session they were unable to extract even the name of the Committee's meeting. What was the reason? That the Government did not want to give the opposition an opportunity to criticize its actions. It is to be hoped that the opposition will be successful in getting the bill defeated.

Mr. Frank French was in Cobourg Saturday evening.

Judge Wood goes about the Government, that is exactly what the people of Ontario are doing. They are not satisfied with the way the government is being run.
